Frequently Asked Questions

Project Basics

What is WestGate?

WestGate is designed as a second home for University of Alabama football fans and enthusiasts. The 7-story, new-construction project consists of 1-, 2-, 3-, 4-, and 5-bedroom finished residences, including townhomes, sitting atop a 2-story, secured parking deck. The concrete-frame building will be clad in glass, brick, stucco, and cast stone. The facade has a unique, 4-story "A" referencing the University of Alabama. The residences are designed to foster the gameday atmosphere with large kitchens, dining and living areas, wet bars, and spacious balconies. Most residences also include a bonus area. The SkyGate Club and rooftop terrace are designed with the Alabama football enthusiast in mind, with a pool table, an indoor-outdoor bar, multiple television monitors, and comfortable lounge seating. Private lockers are provided in the SkyGate Club for Owners to store their beverages. The expansive 5,000 square foot rooftop terrace will have a glass railing system with views across Wallace Wade Avenue to Bryant-Denny Stadium and overlooks the Walk of Champions.
